FESTIVE CHRISTMAS

VESPERS

THE PEOPLE THAT IN DARKNESS SAT

FRIDAY, DEC. 3, 2021, 7:30 P.M. | SATURDAY, DEC. 4, 2021, 5 P.M.

THE PEOPLE THAT IN DARKNESS SAT

Two years ago, the academic calendar offered only one weekend between the end of Thanksgiving break and the beginning of final exams. In response, the Chapel of the Resurrection and the Music Department combined their separate seasonal events into the inaugural Festive Christmas Vespers. Last year, the Coronavirus pandemic halted all live music on campus, preventing any Advent-Christmas events in the Chapel.

This year, we are delighted to return with the offering of The People that in Darkness Sat: A Festive Christmas Vespers. This second (not quite annual) combined offering from the Music Department in cooperation with the Chapel of the Resurrection seeks to mark and honor the struggle that these past pandemic months have been for everyone. We have all suffered unspeakable losses. We have been, in the words of the John Morison hymn text, “the people that in darkness sat.” It is tempting to despair, to see this all as our so-called “new normal.” Yet, following the ninth chapter of Isaiah, Morison’s lyric continues: “The people that in darkness sat, a glorious light have seen.” This Advent through Christmas season, though it begins for us in darkness, nevertheless brings us to the shining forth of God’s wondrous revelation. God will not abandon us to death and despair. Jesus will be our light.

So, welcome this night when we both acknowledge things as they are and celebrate our God who is, whose word bears witness to the full range of human experience. Valparaiso University is blessed beyond measure with talented and hardworking musicians, both faculty and students. Tonight you will hear students who have come from both near and far to join with their mentors in the wonderful work of music-making. We pray that their work be for your blessing.

THE PEOPLE THAT IN DARKNESS SAT
A GLORIOUS LIGHT HAVE SEEN;
THE LIGHT HAS SHINED ON THEM WHO LONG
IN SHADES OF DEATH HAVE BEEN,
IN SHADES OF DEATH HAVE BEEN.

“THE PEOPLE THAT IN DARKNESS SAT”

Well may such a lady

He came al so stille.
To his moder's bour,

THIS LITTLE BABE | Text: Robert Southwell (1561?–1595) | Combined choirs

This little Babe so few days old,
Is come to rifle Satan's fold;
All hell doth at his presence quake,
Though he himself for cold do shake;
For in this weak unarmed wise
The gates of hell he will surprise.

With tears he fights and wins the field,
His naked breast stands for a shield;
His battering shot are babish cries,
His arrows looks of weeping eyes,
His martial ensigns Cold and Need,
And feeble Flesh his warrior's steed.

His camp is pitchèd in a stall,
His bulwark but a broken wall;
The crib his trench, haystacks his stakes;
Of shepherds he his muster makes;
And thus, as sure his foe to wound,
The angels' trumps alarum sound.

My soul, with Christ join thou in fight;
Stick to the tents that he hath pight.
Within his crib is surest ward;
This little Babe will be thy guard.
If thou wilt foil thy foes with joy;
Then flit not from this heavenly Boy!

ABOUT THE CONDUCTOR

Conductor and teacher ANDREW ROBINSON '10, M.M., is an adjunct instructor in music at Valparaiso University, where he conducts the Chorale; music director at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Chesterton; and a long-term substitute general music teacher at MacArthur Elementary School in Cedar Lake.

For the last decade, Mr. Robinson has instructed K–12 choral and general music at schools in Indiana, Iowa, and Ohio. While choir director at Munster High School in Munster, Indiana, the MHS Chorale was featured in performances in Carnegie Hall (“The Music of Eric Whitacre,” under the composer’s direction), Orchestra Hall in Chicago, Disneyland, and at Valparaiso University. The ensemble sang with the Northwest Indiana Symphony Youth Orchestra in 2019 and the Northwest Indiana Symphony Orchestra and Chorus in 2018. The chorale was one of three high school choirs to perform at the 2020 Indiana Music Education Association (IMEA) Professional Development Conference and was slated to sing — as one of three choirs nationally — at the 2020 Windy City Choral Festival, which was canceled due to the pandemic.

A proponent of collaboration, Mr. Robinson was chorus master for the world premiere of “Symphony No. 5: Return to Middle Earth” by Dutch composer Johan de Meij. He prepared the 200-voice ensemble for the symphony’s debut under the composer’s direction at Valparaiso University in 2018. The work, sung entirely in two Tolkien Elvish languages, has now been professionally recorded and performed all over the world. He organized the inaugural Northwest Indiana High School Choral Festival, a non-competitive event that featured nine high school choirs, the Valparaiso University Chorale, and a 400+ singer mass ensemble in the Chapel of the Resurrection.

While teaching in public schools, Mr. Robinson worked in several churches as music director, youth music director, choir director, handbell choir director, contemporary worship director, and organist. In addition, he has a strong theatre background, acting and singing in nearly one dozen plays, musicals, and operas. He assisted numerous high school productions as music director, vocal music director, technical director, director, pit orchestra conductor, rehearsal accompanist, and pit orchestra pianist over the last 10 years.

Recognizing his dedication to music education, Mr. Robinson received the 2020 First Decade Alumni Achievement Award from the Valparaiso University Alumni Association. He was inducted as a Sigma Alpha Iota professional women’s music fraternity national Friend of the Arts in 2019.

Since 2018, Mr. Robinson has held the position of chair of the Indiana All-State Handbell Choir. This first-of-its-kind ensemble features talented high school ringers from across the state. Students meet and perform at the IMEA Professional Development Conference each January. During his time as chair, the handbell choir has nearly doubled in size. In the summer of 2009, he was the handbell choir intern at Lutheran Summer Music, a month-long academy for 8th–12th grade students from all over the world.

Mr. Robinson received music degrees from Valparaiso University (bachelor of arts summa cum laude) and Oberlin College Conservatory of Music (master’s in music teaching). He is a member of the American Choral Directors Association, Association of Lutheran Church Musicians, Handbell Musicians of America, Indiana Choral Directors Association, Indiana Music Education Association, International Federation for Choral Music, NAFME: The National Association for Music Education, National Collegiate Choral Organization, Pi Kappa Lambda music honor society, and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia.
